Graduate Student Concern

The Mental Health Bill of Rights and Responsibilities

Is the concern mental health related?

Student of Concern Form

DIRECTOR OF GRADUATE STUDIES

• Program specific questions and processes
• Academic concerns
• Departmental resources
• Complaint process and grievance procedure

GRADUATE LIFE COACH

• Time management
• Stress management
• Work/Life balance
• Navigating academic relationships
• Conflict coaching
• Mediation

Referrals between resources are common to make sure that a student has knowledge of and access to all support services and information available.

UCC Crisis Care

Helping others: faculty, staff and other students should use the Student of Concern Form to provide information about a student who is exhibiting behaviors that are of concern in relation to their personal, physical, or emotional wellbeing. Learn more about assisting students of concern.

NO

Is the person in crisis?

Yes

Student of Concern Form

NO

Yes

University Counseling Center

Center for Student Wellbeing

Student Health Center

Other Resources/Providers

Office of Student Care Coordination

Referral to appropriate resources, including

New appointments for UCC services, including therapy and medication management, are managed through the Office of Student Care Coordination (OSCC). After completion of an intake form, the OSCC Care Coordinators will assess a student’s needs in an in-person or telephone meeting and connect them to the most appropriate resources, including the University Counseling Center, to meet those needs.

The CSW and SHC are available for direct access. Students are not required to go through Student Care Coordination.

Mandatory Reporting

Procedure is in addition to any and all resources needed for the student’s wellbeing.

Title IX & Student Discrimination

Student Access Services

To receive reasonable accommodations for a disability at Vanderbilt, students are to apply for services through the Access Center.

Project SAFE

Is here for those impacted by sexual harassment, sexual assault, intimate partner violence, stalking and more.

Graduate Student Resource Guide

Created by the Graduate Student Council with support from the Graduate School, is a one-stop document summarizing procedures, policies and resources with direct links to source materials.

Vanderbilt University Sexual Misconduct and Intimate Partner Violence and Campus SaVE Act Support and Resource Information

Note: Confidential information is not shared between resources, except when approved by the student to assist in processes unless a mandatory reporting procedure supersedes.